

BACHELOR OF INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES

Intent to Take the Proseminar

Date: _____ Name: _____

Liberal studies requirement (Three "ILS" courses)

I have earned a grade of "C" or better in two 300-level liberal studies ("ILS") courses and one 400-level liberal studies course:

3000-level ILS Course: _____ (grade: _____)

3000-level ILS Course: _____ (grade: _____)

4000-level ILS Course: _____ (grade: _____)

I attended the required Proseminar/Capstone Information session on _____.

Do you have any outstanding BIS admission requirements? No Yes

Are you on Academic Warning? No Yes

Are you carrying any "Incomplete" grades on your transcript? No Yes

Timing of Proseminar (Students may take the Proseminar no more than 3 semesters prior to expected graduation.)

I am currently planning to graduate in _____.

I plan to take the Proseminar in (check one): Spring semester Summer semester Fall semester _____ Year

When I start the Proseminar I will have accumulated _____ semester hours in BIS.

Topic

I plan to work on the topic of _____;

The aspect of this topic that most interests me is _____;

I have taken the following courses that relate to my broad topic:

(1) _____ (2) _____

I have done the following papers/presentations related to my broad topic:

(1) _____ (2) _____

I have other experience that relates to my topic: _____

Mentor

One of the Capstone Project Coordinators will take the lead in helping you obtain a faculty mentor to work with you on your Capstone project. A mentor needs to be a UVa faculty member and should have expertise in your broad topic area. You are encouraged to "nominator" a potential mentor.

I think UVa faculty member _____ would be a good mentor for me and my topic. He/she has expertise in _____.

■ If your last name begins with A-L, e-mail this form to John Corlett (jgc2d@virginia.edu).

■ If your last name begins with M-Z, e-mail this form to Ann Marie Plunket (amp8p@virginia.edu).